Service Charge Abuse: The Evidence!

Evidence of sector-wide service charge abuse was shown at the Housing 2023 Conference in Manchester in June in the form of a presentation by SHAC and FindOthers.

It was a scaled-down variation on presentations to Baroness Scott and officials from the Department for Levelling Up, the National Audit Office, and the Regulator of Social Housing.

Even though it's just a snapshot of what we have, it's quite a damning indictment.

You can see the film here and shares on social media will help make sure that we keep up pressure on those in a position to sort it out!
