Useful Resources

Four Million Homes

A recently launched government funded website provides useful information and guides for tenants and residents on matters including disrepairs.

Accent Blogger on Tribunals

One of our members spotted this blog by an Accent Homes resident. It gives an alternative, first hand view of First Tier Tribunals.

Shared Ownership Win

Campaign group Shared Ownership Resources has won a second case with the Advertising Standards Authority on the misrepresentation of shared ownership. This may be useful to anyone who believes they were mis-sold this controversial form of split renting and home ownership.

The group has also submitted an excellent written response to the department for Levelling Up Committee's inquiry into shared ownership.

Student Documentary Film

Jack Huggins is an aspiring documentary filmmaker producing a documentary on hidden homelessness in the UK for a course with METFILM school. If you have been Hidden Homeless and would like to participate, please contact Jack. This is a student project at the moment, but this may change in the future.

WhatsApp Campaign Groups

SHAC members are increasingly using WhatsApp to communicate between meetings, provide peer support, and plan action. Click on the relevant links below if you would like to join in.
